The screenshot displays the IWRM Action Hub website interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'IWRM ACTION HUB' and menu items: 'ABOUT', 'LEARN', 'EXPLORE', and 'CONNECT'. There are also icons for a plus sign, a search icon, a notification bell, and a user profile. The main header area features a large illustration of a hand pouring water into a container, with a background showing a cracked landscape and a donkey. The text 'Integrated Drought Management Programme' is prominently displayed in the center. Below the header, a navigation bar includes 'STREAM', 'ABOUT' (highlighted), 'BLOG', 'EVENTS', 'MATERIALS', 'OPPORTUNITIES', 'DISCUSSIONS', 'MEMBERS', and 'MANAGE MEMBERS'. The main content area contains a welcome message: 'Welcome in the Community of Practice for Integrated Drought Management Programme!' followed by a disclaimer: 'Disclaimer: Most content is only visible to the community members, please join to see more.' Below this, a paragraph states: 'This community aims to engage drought experts, practitioners and other stakeholders from different sectors and levels to discuss, exchange knowledge and experiences, establish synergizes with other organizations and learn about the integrated approaches for drought management.' On the right side, there is a 'MEMBERSHIP NOTICE' section stating: 'You are a member of this community, which means you can freely interact with it by posting new messages or content.' At the bottom right, there is a 'THEME CLIMATE' section.

Discussion

- Future Activities of the CoP: to propose concrete activities for the CoP (e.g. joint webinars on specific topics, developing joint publication, etc.)
- Ambitions for the CoP: discussion around expectations of CoP members; how the CoP can provide support to individual members and institutions
- Enlarging the Community: how to attract new members
